Expansion symbol Two Kamigawa: Neon Dynasty Commander decks are released together with Kamigawa: Neon Dynasty. These are meant to be on-ramps to Commander, with a few new cards and the rest reprints. Description[] There are 30 new cards (with printed set code NEC and collector numbers #1/38 to #30/38) printed in the Kamigawa: Neon Dynasty Commander Decks.[2] These cards are legal for play in the Commander, Vintage, and Legacy formats. They aren't legal for play in the Standard, Pioneer, or Modern formats. Eight additional cards with the NEC code (#31/38 to #38/38) can only be found in Set- and Collector Boosters. NEC #39-76 are extended-art versions of the previous cards, and #77-78 are dark frame versions of the two face cards. The other cards in these decks (with printed set code NEC and collector numbers #079-180) are legal for play in any format that already allows those cards; that is, appearing in these decks doesn't change a card's legality in any format.[3] Like with previous decks in the Commander Series, the new cards are themed to the world of the main set and the reprints can be from anywhere. Five reprints feature new art (four of them with new flavor text): Genesis Hydra, Kodama's Reach and Sakura-Tribe Elder, Mossfire Valley and Skycloud Expanse. Contents[] Each package contains: Cycles and additional cards[] Eight additional cards with the NEC code (#31/38 to #38/38) can only be found in the Set and Collector Boosters. They aren't found in the Kamigawa: Neon Dynasty Commander decks. Five of these form the New Myojin cycle. The last three additional cards are a rare Ruthless Technomancer and two mythics, Go-Shintai of Life's Origin and Yoshimaru, Ever Faithful. Buckle Up[] * Hitch a ride with Kotori and her fleet of souped-up vehicles, then run your opponents off the road. If you can master all the ways to bring your artifacts to life, you'll be miles ahead of the competition. " A new note was added in the original list article on February 18, 2022 to clarify that Ukiyo-e lands cannot be found in the deck and only normal basic land versions are included.[2] The new cards are: Cards printed in Kamigawa: Neon Dynasty, and therefore having that set symbol and code, are: Imperial Recovery Unit Mobilizer Mech Prodigy's Prototype Surgehacker Mech The double-faced tokens are: [4] 2x 4/4 Angel creature with flying and Vigilance // 3/3 Elephant creature 1x 1/1 Myr artifact creature // 1/1 Pilot creature with "This creature crews Vehicles as though its power were 2 greater." 1x 1/1 Spirit creature // 1/1 Myr artifact creature 6x 1/1 Spirit creature // 1/1 Thopter artifact creature with flying Upgrades Unleashed[] * Wield Chishiro's blade and cut down all who would stand before you. Unleash the true potential of your creatures with auras, equipment and counters. Together, you are capable of anything! " The Upgrades Unleashed Commander deck was inadvertently printed with two copies of Mossfire Valley. It was officially stated that players wanting to play the deck in Commander should swap out the extra copy of Mossfire Valley for a basic land or the land of their choice.[2] However, it is suspected that the extra Mossfire Valley was actually supposed to be a Nissa, Voice of Zendikar reprint numbered NEC #122, not a basic land.[5][6] The deck actually provides a plant token for this card. A new note was added in the original list article on February 18, 2022 to clarify that Ukiyo-e lands cannot be found in the deck and only normal basic land versions are included.[2] The new cards are: Cards printed in Kamigawa: Neon Dynasty, and therefore having that set symbol and code, are: The double-faced tokens are[4]: Tokens and markers[] 1/1 Shrine enchantment creature, for Go-Shintai of Life's Origin. 4/4 Angel creature with flying and Vigilance, for Parhelion II. 0/0 Phyrexian Germ creature, for Bonehoard. 1/1 Elemental creature, for Elemental Mastery. 1/1 Goblin creature, for Krenko, Tin Street Kingpin.
