Prayers of the Rosary

Sign of the Cross
 In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed
 I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father
 Our Father, who art in heaven; hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary
 Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory be to the Father
 Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fatima Prayer
 O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

Hail, Holy Queen
 Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope; to thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears; turn, then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

Closing Prayers
 Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

O God, whose only-begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech Thee, that by meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the intentions of the Holy Father, one may recite at the end of the Rosary one "Our Father", one "Hail Mary", and one "Glory Be". theholrosary.org 2021 The Rosary is a meditative prayer based on Scripture. When we pray the Rosary, we ask Mary to pray for us as we seek to grow closer to her son Jesus by contemplating His life, death, and Resurrection. The Rosary is a prayer that always accompanies me: it is also the prayer of the ordinary people and the saints ... It is a prayer from the Holy Trinity to be glorified at all times. Fatima Prayer "O my Jesus, forgive us our sins ... "The Fatima Prayer was given directly by Mary to three shepherd children on July 13, 1917 during her appearances in Fatima, Portugal. In this effort, the heresy continued to reappear, however, so he called on the Blessed Virgin Mary to guide him. Tradition holds that Mary appeared to him in 1221 and gave him the devotion of the Rosary, encouraging him to share the prayer with others. Many also believe that the historical origin of the Rosary lies in the monastic practice of reciting 150 Psalms each week, a practice which additionally expanded into the repetition of Hail Mary's. Rosary Prayers The Rosary devotion is comprised of several prayers, which are all rooted in Scripture. Under "How to Pray: The Rosary" below, you can read about the traditional order of these prayers in the Rosary. People often pray with rosary beads to guide their time in prayer, though they are not necessary for praying the devotion. If you don't have a rosary, consider praying with the Bishop Sheen X Hallow Rosary. Apostle's Creed "I believe in God, the Father almighty ... "We begin the Rosary with the Apostle's Creed. It is a fitting way to begin this prayer, affirming our core beliefs as Catholics. Each line comes from different books of Scripture, including the Gospels, 1 Peter, 1 Corinthians, Acts, and more. Our Father "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name ..." Also known as the Lord's Prayer, this prayer comes directly from Jesus in Matthew 6, when he teaches his disciples how to pray. Hail Mary "Hail Mary, full of grace ..." Although the repeated Hail Mary is addressed directly to Mary, it is to Jesus that the act of love is ultimately directed, with her and through her. St. John Paul II The Hail Mary prayer is the heart of the Rosary. We pray 10 Hail Mary's within each of the five decades - totaling 50 Hail Mary prayers at the end of your devotion. This prayer, in which we ask Mary for her intercession, is also rooted in Scripture. The first two lines come from the first chapter of Luke, when the Angel Gabriel announces Christ's coming at the Annunciation and when Mary's cousin, Elizabeth, greets Mary at the Visitation. Glory Be "Glory Be to the Father ..." The Glory Be is often referred to as the doxology, a word that comes from Greek, meaning "an expression of praise or glory." This prayer is quite common and straightforward - we pray for the Holy Trinity to be glorified at all times. Fatima Prayer "O my Jesus, forgive us our sins ..." The Fatima Prayer was given directly by Mary to three shepherd children on July 13, 1917 during her appearances in Fatima, Portugal. In this prayer, which is said at the end of each decade, we ask Jesus for mercy upon us and upon all souls. Hail, Holy Queen "Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy ..." The Rosary ends with this powerful prayer, which comes from the ancient tradition of monks concluding their communal prayer with the Salve Regina (a Latin chant of the Hail, Holy Queen). Reminded that Jesus is given to us through his Mother Mary, we give thanks to God for Mary's participation in all of the saving events of Jesus' life, death, and Resurrection. Mysteries Each of the five decades of the Rosary highlights a unique moment within the Paschal Mystery. There are four sets of mysteries - Joyful, Sorrowful, Luminous, and Glorious - and each contains five pivotal events from the life of Jesus. When praying the Rosary, we enter into one set of these mysteries at a time, meditating on them through the eyes of Mary, the disciple who was closest to Jesus and knew him best. The Church traditionally prays certain mysteries on specific days of the week, as follows: Monday: Joyful Mystery Tuesday: Sorrowful Mystery Wednesday: Glorious Mystery Thursday: Luminous Mystery Friday: Sorrowful Mystery Saturday: Joyful Mystery Sunday: Glorious Mystery Joyful Mysteries (Monday, Saturday) The Joyful Mysteries invite us to contemplate the Incarnation, and we enter into the wonder of Jesus coming to earth as a baby. We see the incredible story unfold through Mary's eyes - the angel appear (The Annunciation), her cousin Elizabeth's greeting (The Visitation), the birth of her son (The Nativity), and the significant events that point to who this child is and what he will do (The Presentation and Finding in the Temple). We are invited to do as Mary did and "reflect on them in [our] heart[s]" (Luke 2:19). Sorrowful Mysteries (Tuesday, Friday) The Sorrowful Mysteries help us relive the passion and death of Jesus. We not only remember it, but we also enter in - we keep watch with Jesus in his distress before his arrest (The Agony in the Garden). We enter into his suffering with The Scourging at the Pillar, The Crowning of Thorns, and The Carrying of the Cross ... and then we stand at the foot of that cross beside Mary as we witness his Crucifixion and Death. We attempt to understand the depths of God's love for us as we reflect on the cost of our salvation and redemption. We feel this sorrow and contrition even more deeply as we imagine it through the eyes of his mother. Luminous Mysteries (Thursday) Through the Luminous Mysteries, we meditate on the events of Jesus' public ministry: his revelation as the Beloved Son of the Father at the Baptism in the Jordan, his first public miracle at the Wedding at Cana, his Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, Jesus' Transfiguration, and the Institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Pope St. John Paul II wrote, "In the Luminous mysteries, apart from the miracle at Cana, the presence of Mary remains in the background ... Yet the role she assumed at Cana accompanies Christ throughout his ministry. The revelation made directly by the Father at the Baptism in the Jordan, also echoed by John the Baptist, is placed upon Mary's lips at Cana, and it becomes the great maternal counsel which Mary addresses to the Church of every age: 'Do whatever he tells you.'" Glorious Mysteries (Wednesday, Sunday) In the Glorious Mysteries, we meditate on the awe-inspiring miracles that take place after Jesus' death. These events show how Jesus is who he says he is - the Son of God. We experience the joy of the risen Christ and imagine ourselves as Mary or the first disciples (The Resurrection). As we pray, we see Jesus' Ascension into heaven and the Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The last two mysteries, though not explicitly mentioned in Scripture, come from hundreds of years of tradition based on passages from Revelation and the Song of Songs. We celebrate the grace and the role Jesus has bestowed upon his mother (The Assumption and Coronation of Mary), and we pray that where Mary goes, we will one day as well. Why do we pray the Rosary? Think of the Rosary as being like the ocean: There's something in it for everyone, whether you consider yourself a veteran mystic longing to go deeper in prayer with our Lord, a novice struggling to learn how to pray, or someone seeking the Lord's help, right now, with something going on in your life. The deep-sea explorer and the child making sand castles on the beach can fully enjoy the same ocean while playing at different levels. And this is true with the Rosary. Edward Sri, "Why Pray the Rosary?" Just as Dr. Sri explains, the Rosary is a prayer for people of all ages, undergoing different life experiences, and who might have different levels of familiarity with the devotion. The reason behind the Rosary is fairly simple - Mary was present for the joyful, sorrowful, luminous, and glorious moments of Christ's life. So, by meditating on Jesus' life with Mary's help, we seek to grow closer and closer to Christ. We might pray with Mary for a special intention, or we might need a moment of solace with the Blessed Mother and her Son. Any reason to pray the Rosary is a beautiful reason. When do we pray the Rosary? We can pray the Rosary at any time of the day or night. While some people prefer to pray with beads, they aren't necessary for our time spent with Jesus and Mary. Praying the full Rosary step by step usually takes about 15 - 25 minutes, but remember, you can always simply pray one decade (an Our Father, 10 Hail Mary's, a Glory Be) if that's all the time you have. If you're looking to add the Rosary to your prayer routine intentionally, consider the following times for prayer: If you take daily walks, consider adding the Rosary to your routine. You can say the prayers with Hallow, or carry your rosary beads as you walk. Pray the Rosary on your commute; listen and pray along as you start or end your day at work. Pray as you prepare dinner. Set aside quiet time and pray as you get ready for the day or prepare to fall asleep. How to Pray the Rosary Time needed: 20 minutes. How to Pray the Rosary Begin with the Sign of the Cross. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. Holding the crucifix, pray the Apostles' Creed. I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen. On the first bead, pray an Our Father. Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen. On each of the next three beads, pray a Hail Mary. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen. On the next bead, pray a Glory Be. Glory be to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Pray the first decade. On the large bead, announce the mystery and then say an Our Father. On each of the 10 small beads, say a Hail Mary while continuing to meditate on the mystery. At the end of the decade, say the Glory Be. Then say the Fatima Prayer: O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who have most need of your mercy. Amen
