Ideas of Instagram story A € à, ~ "Famoboid blog What is a story of Instagram? Instagram stories are timed places that can be published by an account. These images and videos are not displayed on your profile, but in your history mode. To access your story select the camera in the upper left corner of the app. Once you are redirected to the camera, you will have the chance to take pictures and videos or to select one from the camera scroll. After selecting what you would like to publish, you can then choose to publish in your story or your feed. The answer to A € à, ~ À "How are Instagram long stories? A. à, ~ is all the stories expire after 24 hours. Even if you fuck your Instagram story from a roll of cameras or publish a live video, you will spend a day after publication. These videos and posts are visible to anyone following you or visit your account. There are ways to create private stories or only visible to a few selected in your account settings. Keep in mind the settings will become your friend and also help you understand why the Instagram stories are not detached. Stories are a great way to promote yourself, promote products, and interact with followers. The following suggestions will help you create fantastic content while maintaining the spectators intrigued. Use GIF in your stories to add a little color and animation to your story because you don't add a GIF? The GIFs will add something to your post a little more. You will also help you relate to your customers who also use GIFs in their daily lives. Make a live video if you're going to an exclusive event or you're doing something really nice, why not even have your spectators experience it? This Be done with creating a live video on your story. Video Live will be resumed in real time and transmission to your spectators. You can see who is looking and enter comments. In this way it is easy to see how much attention youÀ € king get and interact with your spectators. Boomerang Your Instagram stories have a lot of interesting and unique features that are limited to their apps. One of these features is boomerang. Boomerang allows films for a couple of seconds and theatrical works what captures on a loop. The movement caught in a boomerang can be anything, from a beautiful impressive. Add text when you publish a photo to your story that has the chance to edit and add layers. One of the layers that can be added is a layer of text. You can choose from many text and color styles. This makes it easier to find the best font that fits your photos. Use this level to your advantage by adding hashtags to attract attention to your post and account. You can also tag to people to bring more traffic to your posts. Superzoom makes interesting superzoom stories can be found between Instagram filters. It is a video camera filter that adds sound and a filter for your videos. These lenses can be themselves like anything for love, horror and despair. They are creative and a great way to have fun with your posts. These filters can be used for HYPE products, show your love or hatred for something, or add some animation for your next selfie. Using Superzoom you will look at your most interesting story just looking at a photo. Doodle on photos and videos One of the best parts of an Instagram story is that you can draw directly on your photo or video. This is a great way to decorate any image or add a personal touch to each message. Offers Instagram different pens to fit your style or Instagram aesthetic. These pens are also available in many colors so that they appear on your background. Add a position so youÀ € Ri showing your followers more cool places around your city or traveling. Help them know exactly where you are using locations. When to publish your story you can add a position sticker. After selecting this adhesive you will be asked to select from a list of locations near you. If the location of DoesnÀ € t appear, you have the possibility to insert in the search bar. After finding your location, select it and put it on your photo. Now your fans and observers will know exactly where you € king in and may intend to visit ThoyÀ € king in the city next time. Interact with the public with any public loves questions when you interact with them, even if it's been in simpler ways. This is why asking questions about your Instagram stories can come to use. Asking questions you can get feedback on products, your account, and what the spectators want. This is also useful for trying to connect with your followers at a personal level. Not every question asks you need to be serious or relate to your business. Try asking how your followers are doing and see what answers you get. Use an application to create flawless stories maybe youÀ € tired king to use a single photo in your story. Maybe you want to bring your followers something different. Whatever the case, you can create some beautiful stories using a layout application. A layout application will help you build schools, add wallpapers and photos modify more at once. These applications are also limited to the size of an Instagram or mail history. This makes it easier Include all the necessary information so you can need to crop upwards. Use the surveys to get answers to questions another great way to interact with the public is to include surveys in your stories. These surveys can help you get big answers and help your spectators feel as if they are involved with decision-making process. A survey can be added for every photo or messages. If you have more questions or surveys in mind thereÀÀ € s anything wrong in the detachment some stories that each have a different survey. These surveys can be used to see what your spectators want in a new product, new videos, or o What they want to see in your content. You can also have fun with surveys to see where viewers are on an opinion or on what their favorite color is. Add links to promote one of the best features for an account verified with at least 10,000 followers. It is the possibility of adding links. When you add a link to an Instagram history, the viewer will have to scroll up to be redirected on the page. You can use links to promote your last product or blog post. Links can also be used to promote your friends and colleagues. This is a great way to redirect traffic to your website. We hope that every person who wanders to the link will buy your product or service. Emoji cursors are a great way to get opinions if you have just released a product or service and want to know what your follower thinks, why not publish a story with a emoji cursor? Emoji cursors are a great way for viewers to tell you how they feel to evaluate their feelings on a ladder. To add a Emoji cursor, go to the Adhesive menu and scroll to find the slider option. When you place the cursor you can select what you need to represent emoji. After making, you're ready to publish and see what footage of feedback damage. We all know how long the stories of Instagram, 24 hours. With this saying, you will have 24 hours to see what your spectators say. This will be represented in the cursor showing the average response on the bar. Do you use a countdown is a great day of release to come? Are you counting the days until your great journey? Maybe you're thrilled to talk to a conference and you couldn't wait to present! Some of these situations can be viewed in a countdown timer to your Instagram history. A countdown timer is a great way to create HYPE around an event or a product release for your followers. Even adding a countdown can help your followers discover events that are not aware of before. If they notice a countdown, they will probably look at it and become a new customer. History of Instagram Shopping Who doesn't love shopping? Your followers love him most likely because they are following your account. To use shopping on the Instagram function you need a corporate profile. After Instagram prevents you from using the purchase function, it's time to create some interesting stories. To add products to your story, you will continue to publish your photo or video as a normal history post. Then select the self-adhesive icon and then tap the products. From here you can enter product information and a direct connection to buy. This will help drive traffic to your website. Generate more customers. Share Stories You are tagged in sharing the stories you have delivered will help you get more awareness while helping your account to get awareness. This is ideal for personal and business Instagram profiles. All you have to do is go to the direct message that you said you were tagged in another story. Click on the image and select Add to your story. Use photos from your camera roll sometimes the best content in Instagram's history is already in your camera. Instagram simplifies the creation of a story by accessing the photos already saved on the roll of your phone's camera. How to publish from the camera roll to an Instagram story is to open the camera in the upper left corner of the application. When the camera opens, select the images to the left of the Capture button. Your photos yes Leaving Choose what to include in your story. Tell a story with your posts that we usually see Instagram stories that are usually random and do not connect together. Why not be the user who creates a linear story? No matter how many photos or videos publish in your story, as long as you tell a complete story from beginning to end. These stories can be series, funny or creative. Do this should increase your follower account and make sure that more people look at your story until the end. Use a call to the Instagram stories of action can be used to create a call per share. A call for action action When motivates or encourages your spectators to act. This action can be anything, to save the planet, buying a product or participate in an event. You have the power to launch the cause and motivate your spectators to make a change. Make your personal messages Kardashian are some of the most popular social media influencers because they seem to talk to their audience, not to them. You can also do it making your posts personal and speak through the camera to your followers. This will create a connection level where you can look like your Follower. This will let your spectators feel special and torn more. Stay coherent in your institution Ideas Ideas CoEcient is one of the most important things when it comes to Instagram. Creation of consistent messages that look similar helps you build a brand, to be noticed by anyone, and to stand out from the competition. You can create stories with the same layouts to help your consistency. You can also make your consistent feed appear to seem attractive to the eyes of the spectator.
