ielts writing test 2

Para el Writing Task 2 del IELTS, deberás redactar, en un mínimo de 250 palabras y 40 minutos de tiempo, tu respuesta a una opinión, argumento o problema dados. Tu redacción deberá estar estructurada en torno a los siguientes puntos: Comentar el tema; resumen de datos e informaciones, descripción de los problemas expuestos; Dar y justificar tu opinión; Identificar posibles soluciones. Para todo ello, deberás demostrar tu capacidad para usar argumentos explícitos y proporcionar ejemplos relevantes. En general, esta prueba evalúa tu capacidad de responder a la tarea específica; escribir un texto de manera coherente y cohesionada, y saber emplear un vocabulario rico y una gramática y sintaxis correctas. Es importante destacar que tendrás que escribir los textos en la hoja de respuestas en el caso del examen en papel, y en el ordenador en el caso de examen Computer Based del IELTS. Aunque la tarea 2 tiene el mismo formato, tanto para el IELTS General como para el IELTS Académico, los temas tratados serán diferentes dado que también los candidatos son diferentes, y persiguen objetivos distintos. Ejemplo de ejercicio Este es un tipo de ejercicio característico del Writing 2. Task 2 – Academic Write about the following topic: The World Health Organization has described the latest Ebola virus outbreak in West Africa as the largest, most severe and most complex outbreak in the history of the disease. The international humanitarian charity Oxfam estimates at least 1.7 Billion dollars to improve poor health systems in Ebola-affected countries. Donations would be the only way to save the health systems of West Africa. To what extent do you agree or disagree with this statement? Give reasons for your answer and include any relevant examples from your knowledge or experience. Ya se trate del IELTS Académico o General, te damos algunos consejos a la hora de redactar. Así, es importante, por un lado, trazar un plan de redacción, con un esquema claro de lo que vas a escribir. Es también importante utilizar párrafos en los que se exprese claramente una idea (una idea por párrafo). Hay que evitar usar el léxico o expresiones empleados en el texto fuente, y demostrar que posees riqueza léxica mediante el uso de sinónimos y expresiones variadas. Debes controlar el tiempo, y tener en cuenta que la Tarea 2 vale dos veces más que la primera tarea. No se trata de gestionar puntos, sino minutos! Tienes que prestar atención a la cantidad de palabras necesarias para cada texto, ya que perderás puntuación si no alcanzas el número de palabras exigido. Pero también recuerda que lo que importa es la calidad de tu escritura y la estructuración de tu texto, y no solo la cantidad. Te mostramos a continuación otro ejemplo del IELTS Writing Task 2/IELTS Essay: You should spend about 40 minutes on this task. Write about the following topic: The environmental problems that today's world is facing are so great that there is little ordinary people can do to improve the situation. So government and large organizations should be responsible for reducing the amount of damage being done to the environment. To what extent do you agree or disagree? En el siguiente enlace figura una lista de temas típicos que podrás encontrar en la tarea 2, en torno a los cuales deberás argumentar tu punto de vista. Duration: 60 minutesThe IELTS Academic Writing test is made up of two tasks. The topics in these tasks are related to areas of general interest and are suitable for test takers entering undergraduate and postgraduate studies or seeking professional registration. Responses to both tasks must be written in a formal style. Task 1 You will be presented with a graph, table, chart or diagram and asked to describe, summarise or explain the information in your own words. You may be asked to describe and present data, describe the stages of a process, how something works or describe an object, plan or design. Task 2 You will be asked to write an essay in response to a point of view, argument or problem. You will support your point of view with relevant examples from your own knowledge and experience. In IELTS Academic Writing Task 1, you will be shown a diagram, a visual way to represent information. You may be shown one or more than one diagram. This visual information can be shown as a: Table Chart Diagram Process Graph Map You will also be given instructions so summarise the information you see by selecting and reporting the main features you see, making comparisons where relevant. You will need to do an information transfer task – the visual information you are given needs to be presented in the form of text. To complete the task successfully, you will need to: Write an introduction Write an overview (a summary of what you see) Present and highlight the key features with figures (data) You will need to write a minimum of 150 words and answers must be written in full, no bullet points or notes. In Task 2 of the Academic Writing test, you are asked to write an essay in response to a point of view, an argument, or a problem. Essays should be written in an academic, or semi-formal style. Topics are about relevant issues and focus on a particular aspect of the topic. For example, if the topic is about computers, the focus will be on a particular aspect rather than writing about computers in general. The task instructions give you information about the question telling you how to discuss the topic in your essay. You may be asked to provide factual information, outline and present solutions, justify an opinion or evaluate evidence and ideas. It is important that you complete the task carefully using relevant ideas and examples to support your position. Your ideas should be organised clearly, using paragraphs for each idea. You must write a minimum of 250 words. You are assessed on your ability to follow English essay-writing conventions to organise and link information in a coherent way using language accurately and appropriately to express your ideas and opinions.
