WELCOME!

The world of unpitched percussion is vast. Our collections range from finger cymbals to maracas to triangles to tambourines to hand drums.

In such a large collection, it can be tricky to decide what instruments students should be able to play, especially in the early stages like Kindergarten and 1st Grade.

I recently got asked about ideas for structuring an unpitched percussion unit. The short answer is that I don't have an unpitched percussion unit. The long answer is this blog post and the set of activities you're reading now.
