The resources for the screenpack were taken from the EVO 2012 build of the game, which was leaked out onto the /mlp board of 4chan by one of the Q/A testers for the game in 2012 before progress on the game was permanently discontinued. In M.U.G.E.N, the Fighting is Magic Screenpack has been made by Dylanius9000, with assistance from RockRage8962. The screenpack comes with 6 stages: Carousel Boutique (Known as "Showroom Floor" in-game), Cloudsdale, Fluttershy's Cottage, Sugarcube Corner, Sweet Apple Acres and Twilight Sparkle's Library (Known as "Golden Oaks Library" in-game). Trivia This screenpack is compatible with the magic meters found in Ra_lord's Twilight Sparkle and Applejack, as well as Dylanius9000's Fighting is Magic-styled Patchouli Knowledge. It is also compatible with all of Moku's Pony characters with the exception of his Rarity which had its magic meter moved. Videos Fighting is Magic M.U.G.E.N. The game features a deep combo system, and the characters bring unique 'magic' techniques with them to the battle! Fighting game fans or not, players will enjoy exciting guilty-gear/melty blood-like style gameplay that's easy to just pick up and play in minutes, but heavily rewarding to those that dig a bit deeper. It is also (as far as we know) the first fighter game to feature a cast composed primarily out of 4-legged characters.
