his left hand. I've never seen him raise his hands or raise the knife. He moved his hands [left] 160m only from his wrist only. Boyle said he was his grandson get hit with the annual Azzari226 blows. I'm the weapon. When I wanted the knife to fall, Boyle told Ham immediately before he was shot. Did he tell you to leave me? Don't do anything with it. When I saw him, he was on his knees and he stayed there. has didn226; 1287 t hardly moves at all. Both Michelle Mills and Allison Mills, who worked from home at the time, were warned of multiple Azerbaijani raids in their backyard. They went to a window in their house and saw Azzari approaching Ham before the second with a bang. You kept saying, Show me the knife. Michelle said Azzari226; What? What? Ham's initial orders after he was on his knees. That's what he said to Peyton. Finally, a short video photo taken by Mikhelle of the accident shows that Az-zari ordered Peyton to throw the knife 160, before shooting him. Michelle Mills said she never saw Ham approach the officer. Peyton never moved from that point, said Michelle Mills. He made the slightest movement with his left foot and then the police said, cer shot him. His [Ham] didn226; It's a long one. Michelle Mills told the County Times that when she saw Azzari shoot Ham, the soldier was at least ten meters away. Ham. He said he was moving forward with the same testimony he gave in front of the grand jury only because the grand jury found that they were n226; Responsible for everything. ItáÁÁ Allison MillsáÁÁ testimony very similar to that of her mother; He said he saw Ham move his right foot to the point where his toes were pressing on the ground before Azariah red. He's ripping his entire leg off the ground, Allison Mills said in a phone interview. He said that after the shooting on their property, he didn't see any blood to indicate that Ham had moved from where he had been shot in the first place. Her blood was in an area, Allison said. I don't believe you moved from that point ever before seeing it. All three women said they saw the bul - let hit Ham.
