56 Total Quotes John Keating Neil Perry Other Mayy Pages e Many movie quotes are immortalized because they capture the essence of the scene in some memorable words. The award-winning film, Dead Poets Society (1989) ... challenges us to contemplate how happy we are in the way we conduct our lives. Mr. Keating e inspires and teaches your students how to live q e extraordinarily as enriching lives. This MovieCreminds us that we have a choice in the form of fostering our individuality. Although the film did not have the happy ending that one would expect with such a message, the film illustrates the human condition when Individuality takes a rear door for compliance. This movie challenges us to explore what we really want, despite what family and friends can try to make us think. This movie, anger an inspiration for, not only find what we want in life, but accept what others may want for themselves. e (V. Moore, q Movie Quotes of Dead Poet e s society e) e e o Captain, My Captain. Who knows where this comes from? Someone? Do not you have an idea? It e s of a Walt Whitman poem about Mr. Abraham Lincoln. Now in this class you can call me Mr. Keating, or if it's a little more bold, the captain my captain. "We do not read and write poetry because they are beautiful and we write poetry because We are members of the human race. And the human race is full of passion. And medicine, right, business, engineering, these are noble and necessary activities to sustain life. But poetry, beauty, romance, love, are these the reasons why we keep you alive. To name Whitman, e e Me! The Life! Veis do Faithless e e | of cities full of fools; what good is it, I love you? e e Answer. with a verse. That the powerful piece * continues * and can contribute with a verse. Is it going to be your verse? e e John Keating: i i i thought the idea of education was to learn to think for yourself. Nolan: In this age of boys? Not in your life! McAllister: e e e Sheve me the heart distilled by silly dreams and I will show you a happy man. e e e John Keating: e e e e "But only in your dreams can men be truly free. e e e e "Not always so, and always so will be. e e e e McAllister: Tennyson? John Keating: No. Keating. John Keating: Now we all have a great need for acceptance, but you must trust that your beliefs are unique, your own, even if others may think strange or unpopular, although the herd may go, [imitating a goat] John Keating : e e e e "That's e e haaaaaad. Robert Frost said: e e e e "Two the roads diverged in the wood and I, I took the least traveled, and that made all the difference. John Keating : Close your eyes, close your eyes! Close e e e e "Em! Now, describe what you see. Todd Anderson: Uh, I close my eyes. John Keating: Yes. Todd Anderson: Uh, and this image floats next to me. John Keating: Madman with sweaty teeth. Todd Anderson: A madman with sweaty teeth with a look that e my brain. John Keating: Oh, that e excellent! Now, give him an adoption - do he do something! Todd Anderson: H-Your hands stretch and suffocate. John Keating: That e that! Wonderful, wonderful! Todd Anderson: And all the time he's mumbling. John Keating: What's he mumbling about? Todd Anderson: Mumbindo the truth. John Keating: Yes, yes. Todd Anderson: True as -- like a blanket that always e cold feet. John Keating: [Some of the gang start laughing] Foresee them, let them down! Keep the blanket. Tell me about that blanket! Todd Anderson: Y-y-you push, stretch it, it will never be enough. You kick, hit, it will never cover any of us. From the moment we enter crying the moment we let you die, it will just cover your face while you mourn and cry and scream. [long pause then class applauds] John Keating: You don't forget "So avoid him using the word is" Very "because e A man is not e Wow. e tired, he is exhausted. Do not use too sad, use morose. The language was invented for a reason, the boys - to court women - and, in this overdrive, lazily does not serve. e e "John Keating, Society of Dead Poets They are not so different from themselves, are not they? Same haircuts. Full of hormones, just like you. Undefeated, just as you feel. The world e your oyster. They believe they are destined for great things, such as many of you, your eyes are full of hope, just like you. Did they wait until e too late to make their lives a pound of what they were capable of? Because, you see, gentlemen, these boys are now fertilizing daffodils. But if you listen up close, you can hear them whispering your legacy to you. Keep going, get down. Do you hear, do you hear? Is it?Carpe e e" Carpe, carpe diem, grab the day boys, make your lives extraordin e e rias. Is it? This is e a battle, a war, and the casualties can be your hearts and your souls. Is it? "I'm on top of my secret to remind me that we have to constantly look at things in a different way. Is it? "Guys, you have to work hard to find your own voice. Because the longer you wait to start, the less likely e likely to find it. e Thoreau said, Most men lead lives of silent despair. Don't resign yourself to that. Break! Compliance: the difficulty of maintaining their own beliefs vis- e vis others. e John Keating. The Dead Poets Society (1989) -I don't care that his poem has had a simple theme. Sometimes the most beautiful poetry can be about simple things like a cat, a flower or the rain. As you see, poetry can come from anything with the material of revelation contained in it. Just don't let your poems be vulgar. e e John Keating. The Dead Poets Society (1989) e -No matter what anyone e tells you, words and ideas can change the world. e e John Keating, Dead Poets Society (1989) The forest because he wanted to live deliberately. Wanted to live in depth and suck all the life marrow to break break This was not life; And no, when I came to die, find out that I had not lived. Neil: [Neil meets Todd sitting alone on the roof] Hey! Todd Anderson: Hey. Neil: What happens? Todd Anderson: Nothin e e e "e" Today is my birthday. Neil: Is your birthday today? Happy Birthday! Todd Anderson: Thank you. Neil: What do you get? Todd Anderson: [indicating the table set lying next to him] My parents gave me this. Neil: It's not the same balcony ... Todd Anderson: Yes. Yes, they gave me the same thing from last year. Neil: Oh. Todd Anderson: Oh. Neil: Maybe they thought you need another. Todd Anderson: Maybe they do not think of anything. The funny thing about this is, I did not like the first time. Neil: Todd, I think you're underestimating the value of this table set. [He picks] Neil: I mean, who would want a football or a baseball or ... Todd Anderson: or a car. Neil: Or a car, if they could have a table set so wonderful as this? I mean, if I were to buy a table set, twice, would probably buy this one. Both sometimes! In fact, its form is ... is quite aerodynamic, is not it? [Walk to the edge of the roof] Neil: You can feel it. This table set wants to fly! [M e s for Todd] Neil: Todd? The first unmanned flight table set in the world. [Todd throws it off the roof - papers fly everywhere and accidents and cockroaches on the ground] Neil: Oh my! Well, I would not worry. You will get another in the next year. John Keating: I sound my barbotry on the roofs of the world. Hopkins: [Reading Your Poem] The Cat Sitted in The Mata John Keating: Parab e e ns, Mr. Hopkins. You have the first poem to have a negative score on Pritchard's scale. Neil: [speaking with anger to Todd] You're in the club! Being in the middle of the club that is being agitated by things! You look so busy like a fossa! Neil: I was good. I was really good. Neil: If Don t ask for him, at least I would be disobey it. [Neila S S just took him home from his performance in "a dream of a summer night."] Mr. Perry: we're trying very hard to understand why e you insist on challenging us. Whatever the reason, we won't let you ruin your life. I'm retiring from Welton and enrolling in braighton military school. You're going to Harvard, and you're going to be a e doctor. Neil Perry: But, that! e another ten years! Dad, this is e a life! Mr. Perry: Oh, stop! Don't be so daretic! You make it sound like a term of arrest! You don't understand, Neil! You have opportunities I never dreamed of, and I won't let you waste them! Neil Perry: I have to tell you how I feel! Mrs. Perry: We're so worried about you! Mr. Perry: * What *? What? Tell me how you feel! What e? e more of that, this acting businesses? Because you can forget about it! What? Neil Perry: [Pause] Nothing. Mr. Perry: [breaks] nothing? Well, then, let's go to bed. Ext. Football field - Keating day crossed the field, followed by his students. He kicks a ball in front of him as he carries a series e of other balls into a net hanging over his shoulder. Keating now, devotees can argue that one sport or game e inherently better than the other. For me, the e actually a chance for us to have other human beings push us into Excel. I want everyone to come in here and take a piece of paper and line up a single file. Keating hits the stands. He throws the balls aside and pulls puts his briefcase down. As the boys line up, he starts plucking the paper slips from a notepad and delivering them. Mr. Keating Meeks, time to inherit the land. Mr. Pitts, rising above your name. He delivers the gradepad to another student. Keating I want you to hand them over to the boys one at a time. Ext. Soccer Field - Day Students are all lined up in a single file, each holding a piece of paper. Blow your whistle. Keating you know what to do, Pitts. Pitts is fighting great odds. To meet the fearless enemies. Keating sounds to me as if you were scared. Say it again if you do as the e is intended. Pitts e e e O fight high probability. To meet the fearless enemies. 10 Keating now continues. Pitts Gives one of soccer balls a good kick. Keating Yes! Pr e ximo. A student sets up the next file while the ball avan e s line. Boy 1 e e e e To be a world sailor on all ports. Keating below. Higher! Boy 2 e e e e Oh, I live to be the ruler of life, e a a slave. Keating goes away and start a record. Boy 3 e e e e To assemble the scaffolding. To avan e sar for gun muzzle with perfect indifference. The m e sica cl e s sica come e s touching the fon e grafo. Meeks will read below, but e e confused with m e sica. Keating come, Meeks! Listen to m e sica. Meeks e e e To dan e sar, the clap the m e e, to exalt, screaming, jumping, rolling, floating. Keating ... Yes! Hopkins (no power) e e e e e Oh, to have life henceforth the poem of new joys. Hopkins is wound on paper and evil makes me a soccer ball with the bread e. Keating puts a disgusted apar e ncia on his face. Keating Oh! Boo! Come on, Charlie, let fill your soul! Charlie raises e m e them on the head.
