Verified purchase Totally man! Like far. This movie hooked her up, the hijinks, the sex, the stupidity of the managers of fast-food restaurants, the rawness and hardness of the alleged alpha stud as well portrayed in the character of Damon. Fast Times at Ridgemont High. Just thinking about the movie now makes me relive my high school days again. This film was for high school students from the '80s what Dazed and Confused was for high school students from the '70s. This fun comedy about the life of students from every walk of life during a typical year of the 80s high school is a MUST have part of any collection of lovers of the movie. I saw this movie when it was first published in 1982, and it's still as fun as it was then. In fact, I refuse to watch this movie on TV, all hacked. I will only look at it in its true form of qualified R, so it is really inadequate for children under the age of high school to see. I think this movie caught something,the true essence of what it was like to grow up during that era. If anyone wanted to know what it was like to grow up and going to school in the 80's, then Fast Times at Ridgemont High School is the perfect movie to suggest, despite the fact that some parents, of course, would deny some of the activities portrayed in the movie... certainly to get rid of some deeply hidden guilty pleasures. Fast Times was one of the first times we saw the "surfer-stoner" character on the big screen and featured a supporting cast of A-listers in the early part of their careers, including Nicolas Cage, Forest Whitaker, Anthony Edwards and Eric Stoltz. To celebrate, here are some of our favorite lines from the movie:Mr. Hand: Mr. Spicoli, what is your reason for absenteism?Jeff Spicoli: I just couldn't get there on time.Mr. Hand: Do you mean you couldn't or don't want to?Jeff Spicoli: Well, there's a crowd scene on the food line.Stacy Hamil I want a relationship. I want romance.Linda Barrett: At Ridgemont? We can't even have cable TV here, Stacy, and you want romance.Mike Damone: First of all, Rat, you never show how much you like a girl. Oh, Debbie. Hello! You always take the decisions. BÀ © Same You will not regret. Now three, act as wherever you are, that is the place to be. Is not it great? Four, when when Food, find out what you want, then order for both of you. It is an elegant movement. Now, Mrs. will have the Linguini and white clam sauce, and a coca-cola without ice. And five, this is the most important, rat. When it comes to kissing, whenever possible, put on the side one of LED Zeppelin IV. Jeff Spicoli: People in À «Ludesà» should not drive. Brad Hamilton: I would not serve fried potatoes before your time. Mike Damone: Today I woke up from a great mood. I do not know what devils he passed. Perryà € ™ s Pizza Waitress: Linda, Linda, there is. There is that kind of the stoop store. Do not you think it looks like Richard Gere? Linda Barrett: You see the beautiful butt of him? Brad Hamilton: Learn. Let him know. Live that. Jeff Spicoli: All I need are tasty waves, a cool buzz, and I'm fine. Mark Ratner: I mean, if you put the vibration to 30 million girls, something is going to happen. Brad Hamilton: Lord, if you do not shut up, I'm going to kick 100 percent of the ass! Jeff Spicoli: That what Jefferson was saying was' Yeah! You know, we leave this place in England because it was false. So if we do not get some great rules ourselves, soon, we will also be false.
