The amusement park rides at regional shows and summer festivals could soon be a thing of the past, with an insurance crisis that grabs the industry. Public liability premiums have crossed the roof. The Luna Park Park park in Melbourne is now forced to pay $1 million for a 20 million civil liability insurance. Two years ago, it costs $135,000 for $100 million cover in case of an accident. Shane McGrath, Australian Amusement Leisure and Recreation Association President, said that insurance costs had gone through the roof. à € "And if you can get it à€" he said.
