A letter of intent to donate is a formal declaration of the desire for a donation to present a donation to an organization or a business. The letter describes the type of donation that is offered (for example, clothing, canned food, motor vehicle) and the donor preferences regarding how their contribution should be used once received by the Donee. All monetary donations should be identified as a disposable, monthly or annual commitment. If the Donee accepts the proposal exposed in the letter, both parties can sign the document to indicate their intention to progress in a legally binding agreement.
